

Dedication

To my beloved parents,

Mr. Menilo Jayson Jabar and Mrs. Rhodora Allena Jabar, thank you very much for your unwavering support, love, and care.

My success is also yours.

We can only be said to be alive in those moments when our hearts are conscious of our treasures. ~Thornton Wilder

I wish to thank all the people who in one way or another contributed to the completion of this dissertation. Without them, my journey into the academic realm as a doctoral student would not have been as pleasant and successful.

To my informants, thank you for the life stories and experiences you willingly shared which serve as the pillar my dissertation, and without which this research project would not have materialized. I wish you success in your marriage and family life.

To Dr. Robert Salazar, my dissertation mentor, for helping me know the ropes of doing research. Your guidance, support, and expertise greatly improved my writing.

To Dr. Peter Wanner, Dr. Edgar Porter, and Dr. Ko Yeu-Chiung, my panelists, thank you for your positive feedback and valuable insights that further enhanced my paper.

To Ms. Connie Maraan, Dr. Nectarina Fellizar, Mr. Chiden Balmes, Ms. Alice Mamhot, and Atty. Melody Chan, for helping me edit my manuscript and/or my journal articles.

To Mr. Taka Sato, Ms. Yuka Doi, Mr. Taisei Ono, Ms. Elaine Vegafria, and Mr. Toshi Mori, for helping me in the translation of my interview guides.

To the Urano Family, Toshio, Rosalie, and Toshiro, for all the support and care. You made Beppu my home away from home.

To the Kei Family, my sincere thanks for all your help. Being treated like I was your own son is an honor.

To the Ogawa Family for sharing with me your home and for praying for my intentions.

To the Matsuda Family for letting me stay in your place and for offering me delectable foods. I can remember how hard it was for me to write on cold winter nights. But your place was definitely a safe haven.

To the Kudo Family and Abe Family, thank you very much for your concern, support, and love. Mr. Eiji Abe, thank you very much for your help in translating the report cards. Mr. Kokichi Kudo, thanks too for the friendship.

To my Kaagapay Friends, Ate Emily, Ate Grace, Ate Susan, Ate Meldy, Ate Mary, Ate Jojo, Ate Fely, Ate Nena, Ate Kana, Ate Fe, Ate Cecile, Ate Annie, Ate Emmalyn, Melissa, Fei, and Jem, for your inspiration which helped me win my uphill battle. My success is without substance if not for the strong bond of friendship we keep and treasure.

To Women's Heart, Mommy Mari, Ate Noemi, Ate Ivy, Ate Lyn, Ate Bambi, Ate Joan, Elisa, and the rest of the community. Thank you very much for your battery of prayers. Thanks too for the moments we shared together. May your tribe increase!

To the Beppu Education Board for giving me a part-time job which enabled me to do my limited participant observation in two elementary schools in Beppu, Japan.

To the Japanese Government (MEXT) for the financial grant. I would have not reached this milestone if not for the scholarship you provided.

To Fr. David Buenaventura, Kim Doo Won, Sant Pun, Aireen Zaballa, Mamert Manus, Eva Ello, Geneveive Navarra, Jan Carol Bandivas, Marivic Recamadas, Marichie Nercuit, Emelyn Obedoza, Myra Mercado, Marvin Segura, Lesley Cordero and Jay Aldecoa, thank you very much for believing in me and for the friendship.

To Dr. Exaltacion Lamberte, Dr. Edvilla Talaroc, Dr. Erlinda Burton, Dr. Chona Echavez, Mr. Quivido Origines, and Mrs. Wynne Escol, thank you very much for the inspiration which made me what I am today.

To my past mentors at the Behavioral Sciences Department of De La Salle University, Dr. Jesusa Marco, Dr. Romeo Lee, Dr. Pilar Ramos-Jimenez, and Dr. Ellen Chiong-Javier, for sharing with me your experiences, knowledge, and expertise which somehow affected my own understanding on the realities of social life.

To my Family, my parents, Ate Vina and Ate Menerva and my brother Menilo, thank you very much for your support. I also wish to thank Ms. Veronica Li, my prayer partner and my future partner in life, for the prayers, friendship, and love.

Finally, to God Almighty, thank you very much for the gift of love. I knocked on Your door and You opened it. And may this door continue to bring more blessings and future success!
